Amber is a music-blaring, tree-hugging, adventure-loving magical little fairy. She is the girl who gets lost in her own delight when she stares at the moon. Shes the one who will sit in the car until the song is over before she shuts off the engine to go inside. In a good heavy summer rain, you can bet she'll be outside dancing and singing and smiling her little heart out. There's an undeniable fire in her that can only be described as soul. She does everything in her life to the fullest, and shes not afraid to lose herself in a good book, or a deep conversation, or an all-out jam session. And when she loves you, she will move mountains for you. This shows in the way she always puts her family first, and the way her friends always make her their first call when they need someone to just listen. She carries a lust for new experience and a bold creative energy from her toes all the way to the wispy ends of her classic wild child locs. This village witch is one with the divine spirits of this universe and never lays her head down at night without giving thanks to them for her loving, supportive, uplifting wife, and her four intelligent, untamed, spectacular children. At the end of the day, she was born to worship the moon and stars, and to give back to Mother Earth through the people she cares most about.
