Ava Heiss just turned 9 years old and has been in Gymnastics on and off for years. Almost 2 years ago she started Dancing with ADC (Allison's Dance Company). She had only a Cartwheel and a Bridge under her belt. Now, 2 years later she has learned necessary skills to get her on the competition team. The school (ADC) gave Ava wonderful opportunities to train with the Best in Acrobatic arts/Dance. She has wonderful teachers, guest teachers and she trains with the Best Dancers in the area. She is currently learning her side Aerial and with determination she will get it! Her family and Friends are extremely proud of her. I can't wait to see her in her first compitition!

I'm a proud Canadian babe who has always wanted to become a model since I was young. I am currently an amateur model who is building her experience and portfolio. I am working towards a career in exotic dance and professional modelling where I can share my talents with the world. I've always dreamt of being published and this would literally be a dream come true for me. In the future, I will continue to partake in shoots and would love to share my photos with this magazine. I love photography and getting to show off my body more than anything in the world. It's been challenging sometimes to feel confident with my body but I have learned to love myself and show off my assets with confidence

Destiny Soria

I feel like I have already lived a full life. I've been involved in acting, directing, and dance from Texas to Minnesota and I am constantly looking toward my next adventure. Born to Norma L (Sauceda) Soria and Luis L Soria, I lived a fairly normal life in Savannah Georgia. Then at the tender age of nine years, my parents divorced causing some pain for me as I was separated from my father. My mother would eventually remarry to Wesley V. Nelson when I was 13.

I proudly describe myself as an "army brat," because I have many family members who have served in the military, including both my father and stepfather. In fact, being a child of military parents meant I would become somewhat of a globe-trotter; I called Frankfurt, Germany my home for almost half of my life. This global experience has given me a unique perspective on my craft that few possess. As a teenager, I also began learning martial arts from my stepfather, Wesley. By the time I was fifteen years old, I was already learning how to high kick and bring larger men to the ground.

Unfortunately, like many rebellious teens, I was having problems with my mother and, with our relationship strained, I decided that I wanted another place to live. Around my 16th birthday, I moved to San Antonio, Texas to live with my father and brother, both of whom have continued to be an integral part of my life.

It was during this time that I learned about my Native American roots, specifically the Kickapoo tribes and the ancient Mayans. As I learned more about my family history, I was filled with a surge of great pride for my nation and I felt more connected with the Earth, the spirits, and my people. I feel that the Universe brought me these blessings.

In reality, acting saved me. At the age of 24, I was ready to start this new chapter in life and I decided that I was going headfirst. Acting allowed me to share with others, to speak up, to challenge my shyness and to pursue my dreams. As an actress, I was able to memorize much more information and my speech gradually became more refined. My new efforts led me to the acting school, John Robert Powers (JRP) in Bloomington, Minnesota where I received further instructions from the best in the industry. It was these lessons that paved the way for my success in acting as I honed my expressions, improved my skills and started my ascent as a rising star.

Hello I am an model/actor. You can see my some of my portfolio on IG. I started modeling again in May 2019. I have been published in New Model Magazine in December 2019. I was invited to Dallas Model Expo in November 2019 1 of only 300 invited. I am looking to get published again as covid has slowed down my progress. I would love to work with you on any of these publishing opportunities. Thank you!
