Hello, my name is Abigail. I am an Asian American, born and raised in the United States. I am an aspiring model and actress, with some experience in fashion modeling. I also have a guest role in the upcoming Amazon series "Paper Girls," playing the young Missy Tieng. This role has allowed me to become SAG-AFTRA eligible. I would like to become more involved in print modeling too. My long term goals are still up in the air-- my original plans were to become a physician or dentist. But if things pan out with acting/modeling, then who knows?

I practice kyokushinkarate.
I'd like to have a black belt.
And I want to be a famous model and an actress in the future.

When I was a little girl, always dreamed with beautiful women from the 50s and the glamour of the Golden Era of Hollywood. I wanted to look like them (of course), but I wasn't. When I turned 17, I enrolled in a modeling school to follow my dreams into become a model. In those days being only 5'6" high and a colored young girl wasn't enough. My opportunities was zero in an industry where the 5'11", extremely skinny white blonde women predominated. That was my biggest challenge, try to break through in a time when wasn't much opportunities for a girl like me; and turned every rejection into a positive thing.

After hundreds of rejected castings and never calls back, I changed my interests to achieve my goals through ballroom dancing; so I became a dancer.. I started taking dance classes and training for international competition winning couples awards in the Latin category. After that, I started getting notice in the industry in my beautiful island of Puerto Rico. Small part as an extra in dance commercial and a music video, and some opportunities as a model in the local TV. No much bus was a beginning. Dancing opened the doors for me to modeling in fashion shows and tours travel around the Caribbean, USA, Mexico, Peru, and Chile was the beginning.

I had achieves the opportunity to travel and performed national and international as a dancer, model, and spoke person. Being a published models in multiple magazine with four front cover under my modeling career. And the satisfaction where exterior type is longer an obstacle to reach your dreams. I can be whoever I want to be and be proud of my ethnicity without changing who I am.

Brexley Orabelle Nyenapo is a 4 year old model. She was born in New Jersey and was raised in Pennsylvania. She's currently enrolled in school and hope to start in the fall. Brexley has always considered herself a model for as long as I can remember. She was only 1 year old when she started posing for pictures. She enjoys playing dress up and taking pictures to post on her Instagram. Growing up, one of her challenges was staying focused, but that's something a lot of 1 year old deal with . At the age of 3, she got a hold of it and never looked back. Her biggest strength is how well she takes directions . She gets in front of a camera and the rest is gold. Her dream is to become great at what she does and to work for well known companies and brands. She's very smart and determined and puts in effort to accomplish her goals . This is just the beginning, because bigger things await her.
