My dream is to one day be a successful actress and be part of some great films. My goal this year is to perfect my gymnastics skills and be able to perform them flawlessly. My biggest challenge in my life i would have to say it is dancing. I love to dance but require much more practice than others. But that doesn't keep me from dancing with all my heart.

What are your dreams, goals, achievements and challenges? If anyone asked you that would you be prepared to give your two-minute elevator speech on your life? If you asked me that 30 years ago my answer would be much different. Fortunately, I can say I have already exceeded my expectations of myself, but there were many challenges along the way. Hello, my name is Cindy and as you can probably tell from my Instagram name (@cindy_rx), I'm a health care professional in my daily life. However, being a non-traditional student, I didn't walk that stage to receive my pharmacy degree until the age of thirty-five. Having a family with two beautiful daughters in school while pursuing my own goals was just one of my challenges. Yet what better way to display focus and determination and be the example for my children! Fast forward to today, I have quickly climbed the ladder in the corporate world and have shattered some preconceived ideas of what people believe young mothers can achieve once they start their family.

Not only have I overcome some professional challenges, but in my personal life I have torn down some walls. While I LOVE modeling now and spend a significant amount of time posing for the camera, it wasn't always that way. I spent almost forty years of my life behind the camera afraid to step in front of it, as my self-confidence and self-love were extremely low. I had so much love and support around me, but my own internal struggles dictated my ideas of what I should look like. Now over 100 pounds lighter and with a passion for fitness, a new Cindy was born! With this newfound feeling of self-worth, I started modeling. As a parent, I loved taking my daughters to modeling and acting lessons, but always wished I could have done that. After some prompting from friends and acquaintances, I decided to take a stab at it myself. Little did I know just how much fun I would have, as well as how much more confidence I would gain through this new outlet. I can't get enough modeling and live for my photoshoots! I'm a chronic smiler in my photographs, as I can't hold back the joy this new passion brings me! As far as my goals at this point in my life, I would say I'd love to do more with modeling. I'm passionate about self-development and continue to take advantage of opportunities to improve my skills in posing techniques, facial expressions and self-awareness. As a petite, mature model, I'm anxious to start a career in commercial, lifestyle and fitness modeling. Having a passion for fitness and a lifetime of experiences, I have a very wide range of themes and visions in my portfolio. I am constantly told people appreciate my unique style, and my plan is to take full advantage of that and propel my modeling career to the next level!

My dream is to become a great photographer in the future. I also hope to remain a model for a very long time. I've been dancing since I was 4 years old, and I've been in the selection for 5 years in a row. I do hip hop, street dance and modern.

It would be nice if I could give lessons myself and dance on big stages.

I expect to be able to combine all this with the hairdressing profession later...

Il mio nome è Mary, sono Pugliese e da 5 anni vivo a New York. Mai avrei pensato che la mia passione per la Danza mi avrebbe portato oltre oceano con l'obiettivo di migliorare e crescere artisticamente come ballerina, lavorare per video musicali, pubblicità e concerti e diventare una coreografa e insegnante. I primi anni nella grande mela non sono stati semplici. Dovevo apprendere una nuova lingua e trovare il modo di inserirmi nel Mondo della "Dance industry". Un passo alla volta, tanta voglia di lavorare sodo e soprattutto tanta positività dopo cinque anni, anzi tre, considerando che il COVID ci ha bloccato per 2 anni, ho ballato per Artisti come Lil Uzi Vert, aperto un portale dove le persone possono prenotare lezioni di danza con me, @svamps_studio, insegno per la Marc Morris Dance Group in Brooklyn, e a breve farò parte del corpo insegnati di @sassclassnyc. Ho ancora un paio di obiettivi da spuntare dalla lista dei sogni che non vedo l'ora di realizzare. Il consiglio che posso dare è non avere fretta, ogni giorno fai un passo verso i tuoi obiettivi, credi nel tuo talento e ciò che è tuo si presenterà al momento giusto.

I love to dance and modeling. I dream one day of being in a magazine like seventeen, vogue or sports illustrated. I also dream of going to the Olympics for dance and teaching dance to children when I'm older. I have done really well last season in dance competitions and I really hope to do well this year. I look forward to being on stage with my dance sisters.
