I am currently working as a substance abuse counselor, yoga teacher, Reiki I & II energy healer, & aspiring model. I have had the privilege of studying in India for a couple weeks at an Ashram. I would describe myself as a versatile model. My portfolio includes Pinup, Cosplay, Holiday Themed, Nature, Studio, Boudoir, & Organized Street Images. I've been published in other magazines and my goal is to be awarded a cover. I have been through two back surgeries and recovered from both. I have been in recovery from addiction and an eating disorder for over a decade. Modeling has had a positive effect on my recovery. I am grateful for all of the opportunities I've been given and my goal is to finish my Master's in Social Work.

I decided to move forward in my music career and then become an actor, then I stepped into modeling. I've been in more than one fashion show and stage organizations in Turkey. I've been interested in music since my childhood, I've had many difficulties and I try to overcome it.

After my mother got cancer, I took a break from music and I was depressed, I went through a lot of hardships and I found myself on stage again, no one could bring me down, getting through every problem was a victory for me.

Taryn
DaNeen

I am 30-year-old Taryn DaNeen Caldwell, born in Dayton, Ohio but raised in Greenville, South Carolina. Walking down the runway and being in the hottest fashion magazine is what I've always wanted to do as a career. My mother played a big part in being my inspiration and motivation to become a model. When I was about 3 or 4, she modeled for a local designer in Dayton. She also would drive me back and forth to John Casablancas in North Carolina almost every other weekend when I was in middle school. Her thrive to show me I can make it has stuck with me since. As the years go by, I focus on school, graduated on time in 2009 and since then I told myself it was time for me to focus on my dream. I've been featured in 3 local fashion shows for Far from Average Clothing line by Jameelah AKA J. Bluez and Noir by Brie. I've modeled in major fashion shows such as NYFW for H.E.R The Brand, LAFW, Tennessee fashion show by Victoria Henley, and also multiple shows in Columbia, SC for Stoi's Atelier. I have worked with multiple local photographers like Syntaris Davis, Harold Mansell and Briana Ashmore. I am also apart of a modeling team A Diverse Nation. I used to get discouraged over the years, but I believe when its my time to shine, everyone will know who exactly Taryn DaNeen is. I plan to keep striving to the top to be recognized by major designers and modeling agencies.

My goals is to become a Seattle Seahawk Cheerleader, also maybe one day open up my own dance studio. I have won 3 miss photogenic awards, took 2nd place my first year of competition. I dance at Kaos Dance Elite. I struggle knowing how good I am/could be I sometimes get into my own head instead of just knowing my worth. I plan on going to college to become a teacher but also a dance teacher and a baker. I have so many wonderful people in my life that support my dreams and goals and I am forever grateful.
